The Class of 1957

The Meta

Peabody High School

Peabody, Massachusetts

FOREWORD

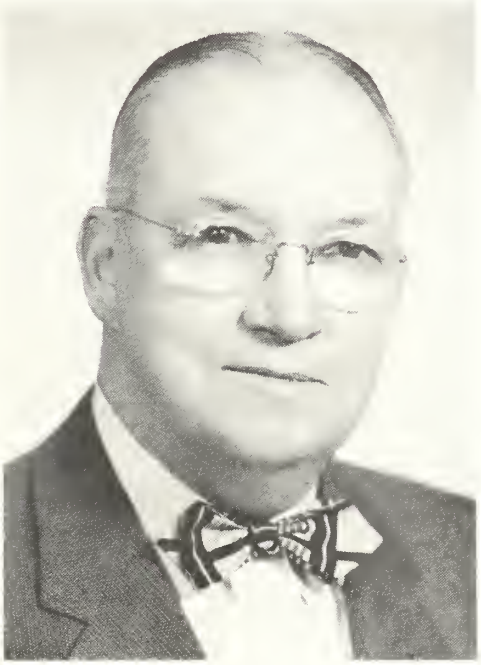
As we approach the end of our four year journey of interesting and enlightening experiences, we undergo an unmistakable nostalgia at the thought of leaving those who have become an accustomed part of our daily lives.

But the journey of life is progressive, and we shall continue on its path strengthened by our contact with those, who, through years of experience, training, self discipline, have been able to impart to us a good portion of the knowledge which we need to enter a living world.

Our future ways will undoubtedly be divergent, and, on occasions, our thoughts will revert to memories of those pleasant hours spent in the classroom, on the athletic field, and at social affairs during our years at Peabody High School. It is perhaps inevitable, that, over the years, as we move onward to new frontiers, these experiences, regardless of how deeply imbedded or how dear they may be, will tend to fade.

With this in mind, it has been our purpose, in the pages of this book, to recapture a number of these pleasant moments and provide a treasury of memories for the members of the graduating class of 1957.

Dedication



MR. DAVID P. COLLINS

Since our very first days in Peabody High School, Mr. Collins, as librarian, has willingly given to every one of us valuable guidance in our attempts at research and outside reading.

As a teacher, he is endeared in the hearts of those of us who were so fortunate as to come under his supervision.

The Graduating Class of 1957 affectionately and gratefully dedicates its Meta to Mr. David P. Collins, librarian, teacher, and friend.

In Appreciation

Our four years at Peabody High School have come to an end, and in leaving our school which has offered us perhaps the happiest years of our lives, it seems only fitting that we should express our gratitude to our many friends, who, through kindness and consideration, have greatly contributed to our happiness.

We take this opportunity to thank Principal Arthur J. Barry, Vice-Principal Timothy J. McCarthy, and each and every member of the faculty. Their constant devotion to education and their conscientious performance as administrators and teachers have prepared us for the happy and useful lives we intend to lead.

To Miss Mary Luz, our financial adviser, and Mr. James Greehy, our class adviser, we extend our sincere thanks.

The Class of 1957 has been extremely fortunate in having such capable and obliging friends, and the staff of the Meta acknowledges with sincere gratitude their untiring efforts.

ROOMERS

Ever since we met four years ago in homeroom 301, I've had just the grandest time. Now that we are going on to other things, we will always have pleasant memories of our years together at P.H.S.

Do you remember that first day of school when we, as bewildered Freshmen, entered the portals of Peabody High School and wondered just what to do until some kind senior directed us to our homeroom (the cafeteria)? I'll never forget seeing a huge mound of books piled high on a desk and wondered who could be the studious person behind them. To my amazement it was that versatile fellow, ROBERT CAVANAUGH, who put those books to their best advantage throughout high school.

At that moment I didn't know what was going on in one corner of the room. It seems that on that first day NANCY BOZEK and DAVE BROUGHTON hit it off very well and they've been battling ever since. When the fighting got rough, over rushed DANNY CALLAHAN with his bag and stethescope to help the wounded victim.

As the days ensued, we grew more and more accustomed to the pattern of high school life and to seeing CONNIE CASTRONOVA arrive late and immediately disappear in the direction of the second floor. As Connie went out, ELAINE ANASOULIS came in, and we all knew then that she would be picked the best dressed girl in the senior class.

Another amazing incident of our memorable first year was bumping into GIANT (Gerry) BONFANTI who could knock anyone over with just one blow.

How time did fly that year! It seemed like no time at all before we found ourselves Sophomores in 206 with Miss Tocken. We were quite startled at Miss Tocken's method of segregation. DAVE CALLAHAN was the first one to find a solution to this problem and many others caught on very quickly, much to the distress of MARY BOYAJIS and the delight of ROGER ALUKONIS. DAVID CARTER tried in vain to keep away from the girls but by the end of June the room was very much integrated. So he stood it as long as he could and joined the army early in his Senior year.

That Sophomore year was loaded with fun but we looked forward to being Juniors on the first floor. Remember when we were able to walk into homeroom 108 with our usual morning pep (ugh!) not having spent it climbing stairs. How lucky we were to have Mr. B. as a homeroom teacher and also a bright addition to our class, JUNE COLLINS who came to help her dad in the library.

Preparations for the Junior Prom really had the homeroom hopping especially JUDY BERRY, the little matchmaker, who received her information from CLAIRE COMEAU, ELIZABETH (Gis) BURKE and MARCIA BELL as to the available male situation. Whenever JOE CHMIELOWSKI'S name was mentioned, he always had the excuse, "I've got to work that night."

The four fugitives from justice (Mr. McCarthy) ANGELO ALBERIO, CHARLES ANDERSON, EDWARD BEZATTI and RUSSELL CARLSON were continually seeking refuge in 108, but were never there when they should be.

In the Spring, we were happy to hear that our actress friend SUSAN AINBINDER was going to attend Dramatic Courses at Emerson College and would be taken there each day by SANDY BLAKE on the back of her favorite friend (Jim the horse).

Do you remember the thrill of walking into 101 and realizing that we were Seniors? We had finally made it and in such a short time. There we were greeted by the mad (but pretty) scientist Madame Coyle as she held out a pickled frog for each of us. Every morning we were greeted by JUDY BROWN who always had a ready smile for everyone.

The faithful recording of ANDREA ALUKONIS and SHEILA BURKE never lets us forget that the days were quickly passing by and the chalk dust of the previous day was used to keep their "white bucks" clean.

To add to the enjoyment, "FLYING ACE" DAVIS soothed us with his "BOBBY PIN BOOGIE" while ALICE CARLSON accompanied him with her "SERENADE IN SHORTHAND".

No face was ever as red as that of DOC (Francis) BROUGHTON when the "boys" found out his middle name.

The Kings of the Kadillacs — WILLIAM BRIDGES and JOHN DASSUK worked very hard all Senior year to make their jalopy the best looking car in the American Legion parking lot.

Toward the end of the year PAT CLOUTIER sat dreamily twirling her pencil and wishing she were back on the football field doing her baton routines. "JOE" CRAWFORD dreamed of the day she would be raising little football players of her own.

Much of the success of our Senior year depended upon the magnificent business management of THOMAS COOKSON and the all round excellent secretary, "PETIE" CONNOLLY, who did her own work and everyone else's also. Classmate, remember always the wonderful experiences we've encountered throughout our high school years and all the friendships we have made. Why not renew those friendships at our first?

P.H.
AROUND S.

102

As graduation day draws near, we start to think of all the memories that we've shared as members of the class of '57. It seems that only yesterday we entered the doors of P. H. S. as freshmen. But time has flown by, and now we'll soon be departing.

Memories — a typical morning in 102.

It's 8:00 and we find PEGGY DEVANEY and LILA CUNNINGHAM already here, unpacking their books and getting ready to start their day talking with a friend from 103.

BOBBIE GANNON gets here early, too, and sits right down to do the bookkeeping she forgot to do last night.

The stagecoach seems to be coming in earlier this year because JOYCE KINGSTON and CYNTHIA GILL are there to greet us with smiling faces.

The bell now rings, and Mr. Donahue starts to round up JOYCE DAKOS, MARY FREEMAN, MARTY HOPKINS and BILLY HOLDEN, who never stay in their own home room.

The morning hunt now begins as GENIE CROMIDAS starts to pick up her belongings from her neighbor's desks. You wouldn't believe it but Genie does have a desk of her own.

BILLY DOWNEY, PETE GARZONE and RAY DiFRUSCIO are talking about their cars. If it was overheard correctly, flying carburetors and bubbling radiators are the problems they have.

There are always a few giggles heard as BOB JEAN starts to tell his jokes to whoever is willing to listen.

GEORGE FELLOWS has just returned from his trip to Florida. He has a nice tan even though his trip was a short one.

SONNY DZIELNIK and GEORGE DOUGLAS are busy writing the Declaration of Independence. "Who is it for this time boys? Mr. Donahue or Mr. McCarthy?"

"Food—Umm," are the sighs heard from STELLA EFTIM and JOANNE EAGER as they search through BOBBY FEENY'S lunch. They pass all the food around. After all, it's not their lunch; they don't have a thing to worry about. They are very generous though; they saved Bobby a cookie. How thoughtfull ! !

Get your money out kids. Here comes MARILYN DONAHUE trying to collect all the class dues. She's having a rough time. WARREN ENNIS and JOHN DELPERO just won't cooperate. They seem to have empty wallets.

"Baseball ! ! What do I care about baseball!" is the reply NICK GIRGUS gets from DONNA GESSON. She's busy talking to ANITA GNESS and ROSALIE HOCTER and doesn't want to be disturbed. Oh well, better luck next time. Nick.

RICHIE GARROW is busy at the back of the room discussing with BOB DOBSON some new way to annoy Mr. Donahue.

"What's that you've got on?" is the question BILLY GREGORY asks RICHIE GILL, who is wearing a bright yellow shirt. "Like my new shirt?" Richie asks. "Oh! ! Is that what you call it?" sighs Billy.

ELAINE D'ENTREMONT, neat as a pin, brightens up the class with her bright and cheerful smile. She's pretty proud of those B. C. bookcovers that BILLY EAGAN is admiring.

SALLY FREEDMAN is busy, as usual, looking over Observer offerings in her capacity as Co-Editor. Sally was the queen of the 1956 class Junior Prom.

Here comes LYNNE GALLO. Don't tell me she's late again. Oh my! we'll all faint the day she walks in early. I bet she has more late slips in her desk than there is on the second floor desk.

During all this commotion, CAROL HUMMRICH sits contentedly reading that puzzling filing that was assigned for last night's homework.

Well, that's a typical morning in 102. Best of luck to all the Senior especially to the members of our famous homeroom—102.

P.H.S. CROWD

Many interesting things have happened to us during our four years at P. H. S. In this column we will try to write something of interest about each member of our homeroom group—be it senior year or otherwise.

How could we ever forget the time when we were Freshmen and JIMMY KELLY came in with the green pants for St. Patrick's Day. He really made a big hit with the Irish.

LOUISE LENTZ, RUTH LARRABEE and JOAN KULEZA are usually studying their history early in the morning. They should ask a few others in the room to join them. We all could use a little help.

BILL KIPOURAS has quite a few talks with "Congress" and he finds that they go out of session frequently. This creates a problem—the answer of which is a mystery.

We had a big shock when it came time for the March of Dimes collection —STEVE "BENNY" KRISKO'S dimes went marching in. Hurrah! Hurrah!

In the morning we usually have a visitor by the name of Rosie. She comes in to talk to EILEEN KIRANE. This conversation usually continues all day long.

STEVE MANTSOURANI has added fame to P. H. S. by his great football ability, especially in '56. He is also one of our able machinists at the Vocational School, others of which include FRANK LURVEY, DANNY MANNING, LEO McMORRILL and CARL MELVILLE.

LOIS LEBLANC is still trying to sell her basketball write-ups. Anyone who wishes to purchase these "items of interest" may contact her in the Library anytime before graduation.

JIMMY MARSHALL has applied for the U. S. Air Force Academy, and we want to wish him all the luck in the world. At his interview we heard that he sang the song, "Three Blind Mice." Was that true, Jimmy?

We never seem to see CAROL KOWALSKI in our homeroom although she is a member. She is always in 101 with Connie. Or is her interest in some boy in that room!

FRANKIE KOHUT is really a hot rod driver. We saw him going down the street the other day and we think that he should join the West Peabody Stock Car Races this summer.

BRENDA LAWRENCE always has a good word for everyone. We think she should open her own "Heart Council" because she is always listening to everyones problems.

We are glad that RICHARD MERCHANT decided to finish his Senior Year with us, although his family has moved to Germany.

DAVE MICALCHUCK "Elvis" might have had 103 assigned to him as a homeroom, but he seems to "live" in 102. What is the big attraction, Dave?

Curtis's has proved to be quite advantageous for JIMMY McCARTHY. It seems to put him in a position to get him some dates. Don't we all wish we worked there!

LORRAINE LEBLANC can cure any and all ills since she has been working as a doctor's secretary. Is there any medicine you can recommend for a broken heart, Lorraine?

PAUL LAWRENCE, one of our transfers from St. Mary's of Lynn, has done quite well for himself at P. H. S. He surely has made quite a few new friends.

One of the quiet members of our homeroom is BILLY MAGUIRE. His quietness seems to have brought him knowledge. Don't we all wish that we were quiet? ?

JULIET LEBOEUF says that school is all right, but we understand that she is going to like housekeeping much better. Wedding bells will be ringing for her in June. Good luck, Juliet.

JANICE LEVESQUE will also be hearing wedding bells shortly. We want to wish her all the happiness in the world.

Well, that includes everyone, and, all in all, we think our homeroom, 103, had the finest people who walked the corridors (perhaps when they were not supposed to) in Peabody High School.

CHEERLEADERS

As our High School days came to an abrupt end, we find ourselves wondering where the years have gone. Many thoughts are then turned to our futures. Some are planning careers in business, others are enrolled in colleges, and a few are contemplating that one "big step". This is where we find starry-eyed JEANETTE PATENAUDE gazing into her hope chest and dreaming of her elegant wedding gown.

Come on. Let's look over her shoulder and have a sneak preview of her plans. There's her wedding list and look who tops it. You guessed it, our own ever-popular LYDIA PROKOPOVICH is to be maid of honor. Lydia thinks "Be My Love" would make an appropriate wedding song but charming soloist ELLEN LUZ, argues the need for a little Calypso touch. Hope she will give Jeanette a little publicity in her column.

Looks like the bridesmaids are lined up already. There's our cute blonde BARBARA PIERCE and our friendly Homeroom Representative PATRICIA PARKER with her vivacious side kick PEGGY MOORE. BETTY MINOTT, our future gym teacher, along with dependable ELAINE MURPHY and ever ready (with the jokes) BEVERLY NEWTON complete the list. They all seem to agree "Because" would be a most proper song.

Wonder who the ushers will be! Guess we'll just have to wait for her to turn the page. Ah! Our congenial ROBERT PAUL will preside with the "I do's".

There's THEODORE MINOTT, down from the wilds of West Peabody and DAVID MURPHY standing in the background along with stern and meditating JOSEPH PAIS.

ROGER NEWCOMB, star hockey player and co-captain RICHARD NEWHALL, and DAVID O'DONNELL finish the list of ushers.

With our adorable cheerleader JACQUELINE O'BRIEN topping the guest list the reception is sure to be a dazzling affair.

JAMES O'BRIEN with his gentlemanly manner combined with the sedateness of RICHARD OLEND will help to add a touch of sophistication.

FRANCIS "BUTCH" O'HARA, P. H. S. basketball star, will be there displaying his innate finesse while handsome STEPHEN MOUTSOULAS and insistent RICHARD PELLETIER look on with careful observation.

MARIE MARCHESINI, our tiny cutie, will make a charming guest.

Serene and serviceable GERTRUDE PHILLIPS, with timid CAROLYN LITWIN will help to keep inquisitive WILLIAM NEWBURY out of trouble.

VERA NEISTOROWICH will be there getting ideas about her own wedding which we hope isn't too far off.

Dark and fascinating ADELAIDE MELLO will bring a gleam of sunshine to add to the entertainment.

DAVID O'NEILL, who doesn't believe little boys should be seen and not heard will certainly contribute to the laughter.

WILLIAM NOVICK is bound to get there at least in time to sing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" with CHARLES MOODY, our efficient class treasurer, to back him up.

Under the direction of our production manager, MR. GREEHY, every thing should go very smoothly.

Well that was a peek into one of our classmate's future. It looks pretty good doesn't it? And we're sure everyone else's future holds as much promise and happiness.

LUNCH TIME

Well, we finally reached our Senior year, but it was just four short years ago that we could hear the superior Seniors yelling "Look at the Little Freshmen," as we trudged up three flights of stairs to our unfamiliar homerooms, where we gazed at new faces. Little did we realize then, that among these strange faces would appear some of the most unforgetable classmates of our Senior class. Who would have dreamed that bashful CHARLIE SPELIOTIS would become captain of the football team of 1956, an outstanding player in basketball and baseball, and receive the honor of being chosen president of our Senior class. Or that little DONNA TOWNSEND would be chosen to give our football players considerable encouragement with her peppy cheers, or that she would be elected vice-president of our Senior class.

We had a very nice class in 105 under the supervision of Mr. Gorman, but can we ever forget the hard time RICHARD WALKER gave him when he insisted on writing how many school days were left all over the blackboards every day. We finally made it, Dick ! ! Of course we were happy to see lovely DEANNA WALLACE crowned Queen of our Junior Prom, and proud to have JANET VERNON, a prominent speaker at our assemblies, and the girl we know will be a success in the future, in our homeroom.

Can you just picture a morning not harassed by the early joke sessions held by THOMAS PSZENNY and STEPHEN QUIGLEY? There was never a dull moment with the shop boys, RONALD SELVO, HAROLD TACELLI, and FRANK ROSSI, arguing each day over who was going to have the title of "Mr. Fixit of 105." They finally gave up the battle, and gave Mr. Gorman the honor of being "Mr. Do It Yourself."

We could always depend on ANDREA STONE for the up to the minute news about the boys of South Peabody. When it came to George, ROBERTA SAROWSKY was never lost for words. (We don't mean Liberace's brother George.) We wish you all the luck in the future, Bobbie.

A newcomer to us in our Junior year, and a gift to the girls was TONY TYLER. Tony won all his arguments in the debating club, and was a great asset to the football team.

To add to the number of Cheerleaders was KARIN SEABERG, who won the hearts of the football fans with her peppy cheering. Our play, "Curtain Going Up," couldn't have been such a success if BERT STANLEY were not in it. His famous words are "to be or not to be." Really, you were terrific, Bert.

To add to the pleasure of each day in 105 was JOYCE WHITWORTH, who was voted by the Senior class the best-natured girl. We think a certain Angie Machiros had a lot to do with this. Right, Joyce? ? ? JOHN TOOMEY had quite a bit of spare time all year except when golf season rolled around. Could it be that golf interests him more than those P. H. S. girls he has been seeing ? ? ?

CAROL WALSH was a picture to see as she walked into our homeroom each morning. It seemed she was always trying to catch up on some unfinished homework. JOE SILVA didn't like the idea of being seated with all the girls, so he always tried to communicate with LEONARD WALKOVICH who was in the same predicament only across the room from him. LORETTA SANTOS and SUSAN WAHTERA always had nice long chats about their different beaux. And, did they have a collection!

"I Dream of Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair" is a song often sung to EUGENIE STICKNEY in room 105. Genie really had swollen nerves while driving with Mr. Cronin this year. After every driving lesson her hair turned a shade of white. Can you imagine ATHENA ZAFERIOU not having a good joke to tell every day ? ? Where does she get them? Well, who cares, just as long as she brightens the day for someone.

Well, there's one in every class, a comedian we're talking about—SAUL SAVY. He keeps everyone in stitches from laughter. Mr. Gorman just can't get mad at him. And Miss Cody just adores him! Saul is to be congratulated for holding so many offices during his four years at P. H. S. What would we have done without you, Saul?

Miss Luz is probably still in a tizzy from attempting to find DIANE WHITWORTH, BARBARA WILKINS and THELMA SILVA seemed to be very quiet but they spiritedly participated in many of our activities, and soon became part of "the gang."

RICHARD SIKORA and VINCENT SPINALE couldn't seem to leave their girls in time to get into the home room. ARCHIE SELLIOS, homeroom representative did a fine job collecting class dues. Thanks Archie, you handled that difficult task with perfect ease. PAT VERCELLONE and PAT WILKINS held daily meetings at the back of the room to discuss the problems of which plague every girl, such as fashions and hair styles, and English.

DAVID ROBINSON pestered RICHARD ZILINSKY almost every morning by asking him to help him out with his homework and Dick, good natured-ly, loaned him a hand.

The class wished to will to ANASTASIA SPILIOTIS an alarm clock so she can get up early enough to get to class on time. We heard late slips are getting scarce now.

Four wonderful years have come to an end, and now we have the little white paper for which we've all been striving. Many joys and disappointments have been shared by all of us. Good Luck to you and may God be beside you in all you do in the future.

SEE YOU AT OUR REUNION.

CLASS DIARY

FRESHMAN YEAR — 1953

September 9, 1953—Today, our first day in high school, marked the beginning of a new and exciting era in our lives. The thought of entering high school as a mature teenager, of making lasting friendships, and of obtaining a fine education filled our hearts. After we were warmly greeted by the teachers and the other students, we all hoped that our future years at Peabody High School would be very successful and enjoyable ones.

September 30, 1953—After an anxious week of signing nomination papers and of primary elections, we heard from Mr. Arnold who finally announced the winners of the Civics Club elections. The fortunate officers selected were: President, Kenneth Mowbray; Vice President, Paul Galaris; Secretary, Joyce Cronin; Sophomore Treasurer, Barbara Roback; Freshman Treasurers, Sally Ann Freedman and Francis Kohut.

November 2, 1953—Today's report:
Time—8:30 A.M.
Place—Peabody High School.
Project—Freshman Class pictures.
Purpose—Photographs for school records and for reference.
Comments—"You know it's hard to smile and say "cheese" at the same time!"

November 13, 1953—Tonight the P.H.S. auditorium, was filled with happy underclassmen dancing to the music of the Rios Orchestra. This was our first Civics Club dance.

November 15, 1953—While umpiring at a college football game today, Mr. Barry unfortunately broke his leg. However, after a few weeks absence, he returned to his duties as principal.

December 1, 1953—This morning, the Civics Club sponsored the first of five school assemblies scheduled for the year. The guest, Mr. Donald Scott-Morrison, was an accomplished pianist who had us chuckling with laughter even when we weren't supposed to be laughing. It was an assembly we'll never forget!

December 3, 1953—Another first for our Freshman year was the quarterly examination, the Freshman Departmental. After three nerve-wracking days of tests, we dreaded the thought of four more years of bi-monthlies, mid-years, and finals.

June 4, 1954—Today was the annual Outing Day at P.H.S. Members of the various clubs and social organizations chatted excitedly as they awaited the bus ride to Boston and the boat ride on the "Queen Bells" to Nantasket Beach. Although we couldn't dock at Nantasket because of the heavy fog, everyone had a wonderful time on the "Queen Bells" and at Revere Beach.

June 25, 1954—The last day of our Freshman year in Peabody High School was marked by jubilant faces as everyone poured out of the high school. After a summer vacation, we'll return in September as upper classmen fully prepared for the three years that lie ahead.

September 8, 1954—It doesn't seem possible that the Summer, with its carefree and relaxing days, is over. We must return once more to our books and begin our Sophomore year.

September 22—Final elections were held and suspense reigned until the votes were tabulated and the results posted. The new Civics Club officers were: President, Saul Savy; Secretary, Judy Brown; Sophomore Treasurer, Petie Connolly; Assist. Treasurer, Lorraine LeBlanc.

September 24—What a racket. The students participated in an enthusiastic football rally supported by our newly formed band.

October 22—The Civics Club sponsored their annual Fall Dance. The music of Pete Rambi's orchestra was most enjoyable.

October 25, 27, 29—On these days Tuberculin Test patches adorned the arms of Seniors and Sophomores. TB or not TB? That was the question to be answered on Friday the 29th. Luckily no cases were reported.

November 8—The student body enjoyed an assembly program sponsored by the Civics Club. Mr. William Lloyd Davis displayed great powers of ventriloquism with his dolls Judy, Punchy, Sammy and Ivan.

December 8—The Civics Club again presented an assembly introducing Maurice and Minette, who awed us with their acrobatic skills. Later in the program some of our own acrobats performed on the cycle and trampoline. We must admit that our boys were pretty good, but did not measure up to the experienced artistry of Maurice and Minette.

December 23—

January 3—During the vacation our dreary old gym was transformed into a bright pleasant auditorium. It's amazing what a good painting will do!

June 8—Outing day at P.H.S. We had a real "crazy" time at Canobie Lake and returned weary after a wonderful day.

June 22—With the final examinations over we have reached the completion of our Sophomore year and look forward with anticipation to an enjoyable summer.

JUNIOR YEAR — 1955-1956

September 21, 1955—The inevitable day came at last. With new fall clothes and a whole summer to talk about we started back to school. We considered ourselves lucky in that the opening day had been postponed two weeks due to the polio epidemic.

October 5—Today the winners of the Junior Class elections passed out cigars while the losers simply smiled, shrugged, and said "Maybe next year." The officers elected were: President, Saul Savy; Vice President, Judy Berry; Secretary, Petie Connolly; Treasurer, Charlie Moody. Homeroom representatives were: 108, Judy Brown; 109, Marty Hopkins; 110, Lorraine LeBlanc; 201, Lydia Prokopovitch; 203, John Stickney.

November 1, 3—First term almost over? Guess so. These were he days we had bi-monthlies.

November 18—Junior Frolic—Our first dance of the year was a huge success even though the D.J., Jack McDermott, arrived late.

January 5, 1956—"The Line Up" Room: 201; Persons involved: Junior Class; Case: Measured for class rings; Chief question: "How are you going to pay for yours?"

January 17, 19—Mid-years already?! Half our Junior year gone Tempus fugit! !

January—Boys State—Girls State: Max Elser, Saul Savy, and Mary Freeman, excellent representatives of our class were selected to attend the conference at the University of Massachusetts and Bridgewater Teachers College in June.

Football Captain for '56—Charlie Speleotis. Charlie and our new coach, Dave Lucy, led us to several memorable victories and put Peabody back on the football map in our Senior year.

March—Debate: Leominster vs. Peabody. The issue was, "Should the age for obtaining a drivers license be raised from 16 to 18?" Taking the affirmative side were our own Mary Walsh and John Tyler. On the negative side were John Ridley and Richard Sobel of Leominster. Tony Tyler was the moderator. Students enjoyed this debate so much they were anxious for others to be arranged.

April 5, 6, 7—Bi-monthlies! It seems as though all we do is take tests. C'est la vie! !

May 18—The auditorium never looked better! Our beautiful queen, Deanna Wallace, reigned over a very successful Junior Prom.

May—After a very long wait and a few postponements, we finally got our class rings.

June 5—A day off! And we're off, to Nantasket, that is! We had perfect weather—something new. The sun is usually a stranger to our outings.

June 12, 14—Final Exams! And our Junior Year is over!

SENIOR YEAR— 1956-1957

September 10, 1956—Our first day of school as the "big wheels." We have achieved the goal we were determined to reach when we entered as Freshman.

September 17—Loud cheers were heard as the cheerleaders led the student body to a pre-game rally. Throats became hoarse as classes competed to see who could yell the loudest.

September 18—We went to the polls today to vote for our Senior Class officers: Charlie Speleotis, President; Donna Townsend, Vice President; Charlie Moody, Treasurer; Petie Connolly, Secretary, were the results. Elaine Anasoulis, 101; Marilyn Donahue, 102; Billy Kipouras, 103; Patty Parker, 104; and Archie Sellios, 105; were elected as home room representatives.

September 24—"Ouch" was the familiar sound heard today as we received our first of three polio shots.

October 12—After an unforgettable football victory over Lynn English, earlier in the day, students danced and frolicked to the music of the Blue Knights, as the Seniors held the annual Senior Barn Dance. This is really one day to remember. A football victory and a victorious dance.

October 17—Officials of the New England Telephone Co. presented a most informative assembly on the use of the dial system.

October 18—The fire alarm sounded this morning right after we finished our exams. After we had been standing outside in the cold for half and hour, word got around that a crank had called and said there was a bomb in the school. We really appreciated that time off but little did we realize the seriousness of such a call.

October 22—Two down and one more to go—polio shots, I mean.

October 26—The Golden Anniversary of Vocational Training Schools was observed today and our vocational students were allowed the day off to celebrate.

November 2—The auditorium was gaily decorated and the records piled high as the cheerleaders presented their record hop as part of the pre-Salem game festivities.

November 14—Jeepers! Graduation is drawing near. Today we were measured for caps and gowns.

November 21—One of the most enjoyable assemblies in many years, "The Walter Winshield Show," was put on by the Observer. Bob Cavanaugh portrayed "Walter." Among the featured guests were Elvis Pretzel and Grandma Molasses. Participating in the assembly were Sally Freedman and Bert Stanley, co-ediots; Marty Hopkins, Art editor; Advertising Manager; Joanne Eager, Ellen Luz, Janet Vernon, Dave Micalchuck, and Hershell Clopper.

December 4—Betty Crocker exams were held today for senior girls. Janet Vernon seems to be the best cook at P.H.S. because she came out the highest.

December 7—Dave Callahan was elected to represent P.H.S. at the State House at Good Government Day. A very good choice.

December 12—The football players and the cheerleaders were recipients of blue jackets for the former, and gold footballs for the latter, as the Booster Club showed their appreciation to these hard working boys and girls.

December 14—As the highlight of the Christmas Season the Seniors presented the first formal of our school year. "The Christmas Ball." Queen Judy Berry and King Dave Callahan presided over this gala affair.

January 9—After a few postponements the Mid-year exams finally began today.

February 17—The Seniors again sponsored an enjoyable social affair as we went skiing at Belknap, New Hampshire. No broken bones anywhere.

February 15—Once again the auditorium was filled with music as the Seniors held the Cupids Ball. The Serenaders provided the music for the evening.

March 5—Smile pretty, say cheese. Mr. Gainsboro was here today taking pictures today.

March 8—Student Exchange was held today. Our students, Judy Brown, Dave Callahan, Tony Tyler, Phil Pierce and Joyce Cherwek visited a neighboring community, Marblehead. On March 14, the students from Marblehead come to our fair city.

April 25, 26—The Dramatic Guild sponsored a three act comedy called "Curtain Going Up." Between acts entertainment was presented by members of the Senior class.

May 28—The Senior Class Banquet was held tonight with all the festivity gala premiere. The year has quickly come to an end.

May 29—The annual Memorial Day assembly, the last assembly that we all sat as students as P.H.S., was held today.

May 31—Our last day of school. Our four years have come to an end. We'll miss all the fun we've had and all our wonderful classmates; but not the homework and classes. All in all, the years have been lots of fun.

June 6—Our Senior Reception was held at Magnolia. This was a dinner-dance with music by the Serenaders. Everyone was a little sad at the thought of leaving high school and of all the glorious times that we've enjoyed as students of Peabody High School.

June 9—Well, we finally made it! Who would have thought four years ago that we would be taking such a long walk across the platform to receive that long awaited diploma.

The wonderful memories we've had these last four years: dances, trips, sports, assemblies and classes, will always remain in the hearts of each and every one of us.

Class Will

We, the class of 1957, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath, in our last will and testament, all our worldly possessions to the class of '58 in the hope that they may be used with as much spirit and good taste as our class has used them.

As we pass through the hallowed portals of our Alma Mater, we think of all the happy times we had in our Senior year and will them to the present Junior class.

To Carole Knowlton is left all of Petie (Mother Capone) Connolly's ability to rule the mob.

Tom Cookson, Bill Holden, and Charlie Moody will their winning ways with the opposite gender to Roger Comeau, Tim Hallinan, and Billy Champagne.

Our class president, Charlie Speleotis, leaves his versatility to angular Ed Callahan.

Sheila Burke, Judy Brown, and Sue Wahtera will all the fun they had on the Belknap ski trip to Barb Eddy, Judy Hitchcock, and Claire Farley.

"Peaches" Freeman leaves her scintillating personality to Margie Smith.

Danny O'Neil decided on leaving to Mary Ann Nally his rollicking adventures in Miss Cody's study room.

Steve Krisko remits his gold plated pool stick to Walter Bellaconis.

"Dutchess" Whitworth leaves her jumping jaws and remaining gum to Barbara Travis.

Billy Kipouras turns over his reins as sports writer of our Observer to Eddie Bell.

To Ronnie Enos and Paul Thompson, Dick Sikora and John Toomey bequeath their places in front of George's Variety, unwilling as they are to relinquish them.

To Beverly LeBreux is willed Genie Cromidas' timidity.

Butchie O'Hara leaves to Butchie Galaris his capacity for dribbling.

Joyce Whitworth, Archie Sellios, Karin Seaburg, and Lorraine LeBlanc leave their typewriters and erasers to Joyce Quinlan, Sally Vernon, Selma Nelson and Brenda Graffam.

"Elvis" Micalchuck leaves his guitar and musical gyrations to Johnny Bryant.

To Janet Caley is willed Elaine Anasoulis' diamond studded comb.

To Mr. Johnson we leave Deanna Lerner, Herschel Clopper, and Art Pickman hoping that they may carry on in the place of the verbose trimmverate, Sue Ainbinder, Bert Stanley, and Tony Tyler.

Jimmy Marshall leaves his impeccable taste in clothing to Tommy Gagnon.

The hoarse voices of Jackie O'Brien, Donna Townsend, Brenda Lawrence, and Ellen Luz obtained in cheering our football and basketball players on to victory are bequeathed to Joyce Cherwek, Elaine Callor, Julie Moore, and Anna Bezzati.

Bob Cavanaugh refuses to leave his books to anyone and will carry this heavy burden as he wends his way through the highways and byways of life.

Marie Marchesini selects Joanne Mosse as next year's tallest girl.

Steve Mantsourani leaves all the glory he obtained in football to Phil Pierce.

Andy A. and Marty H. leave their pallets and easels to Suzanne Gay and Judy Clarke in hope that many fine illustrations will be drawn for the Observer and Meta.

Doc Broughton wills his hockey prowess to Don Jelly and he predicts that next year's team will be at the pinnacle of the Essex County League.

Judy Berry wills her charming voice to Sandra O'Brien.

Dan Callahan leaves all his frantic hours driving with Mr. Cronin to any member of the Junior class desiring to be a good driver.

Genie Stickney wills her multicolored pony tail ribbon to Mildred Wenig.

All Dave Callahan's golf clubs and his prize chapeau are left to Archie Yee with the hope that they bring the golf championship to P.H.S.

To Henry Velez is left Nick Girgis's bat and all the hits which it obtained.

Pat Parker bequeaths her friendly smile to Maryanne McCarthy.

Ken Hosker is the fortunate heir of Saul Savy's exquisite wardrobe.

That "dahling" Donna Gesson leaves her talent as a thespian to that "dahling" Susan Folsom.

Nancy Bozek, Sally Freedman, Adelaide Mello, and Deanna Wallace leave their twinkle toes to Pat Tardiff, Margie Kiley, Carol Grinrod, and Carol Morico hoping that they will be able to use them in next year's revue.

To Kenny Blake is left all the fun Dave Broughton had in the library.

And last but not least our noted reporter Lonella Q. Vernon leaves her nose for the news to Anita Daniels.

In witness thereof, we the class of 1957 appoint executors of our will Miss Marie F. Coyle and Mr. Arthur V. Johnson knowing that they will carefully carry out the provisions of said will. On this ninth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred-fifty seven, we make final this our last wish.

Peabody, Mass. June 29, 1975

In a daring display of nerve this morning at 8:30 three masked bandits held up The Last National Bank for approximately one hundred thousand dollars in pennies. The pennies stored in a vault bank, which for the past hundred years has stood by the second floor desk at Peabody High School, were to have been taken to the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston at noon. Over the years every student at P.H.S. who was the recipient of a detention or discipline slip has had to forfeit a penny to the bank on the occasion. The money was to be used toward the building of a new gym or cafeteria for the school. Yesterday DAVE BROUGHTON JR. deposited the last penny when he reported to the desk for a detention slip after being late for the English class.

The bandits armed with machine-gun-sized water pistols, after securing the safe deposit keys from where they had been placed, tied up the three petrified tellers JEAN PATENAUDE, CAROL HUMMRICH, and DOROTHY KLEMCZUK and the bank president DAVE MURPHY. Then after drowning them sufficiently with water, the bandits proceeded to roll the vault out to their awaiting truck by the rear door.

Eye witnesses EUGENIE CROMIDAS and ELAINE MURPHY described the truck as a green-orange bakery or milk truck bearing a pink-blue number plate that had from six to twelve white-black numbers. Anyone seeing this truck please notify us at once.

On the scene shortly to aid the bank employees were patrolman BOB JEAN and telephone worker RICHARD GILL. After untying the workers and transporting them home for dry clothes, they came back to the bank to start mop up operations.

Anyone trying to spend a hundred thousand pennies should be rather obvious or the students of P.H.S. hope they will be. Anyone having any knowledge of this please notify the authorities. Meanwhile the students at P.H.S. have started to fill another bank the money from which they have planned to spend for equiping the school with atomic power which the physics class has assured them will be a sure thing when their bank is again full. By the way, to keep up with the high cost of living these days, (the rates have mounted to five cents a donation.)

The Rev. and Mrs. ROBERT PAUL, who recently accepted a call to the pastorate here, were honored by their parishioners and the town-folk, Wednesday evening, at a baked squirrel dinner catered by PEGGY MOORE Delicacies. After dinner the Sunday School classes of the church entertained with musical selections. Two boys in the front row who were blowing and chewing wads of gum during the music aroused Mrs. Paul's curiosity as to their identity. Questioning her husband on this matter he replied and we quote, "Why, dear, whose boys but DIANE WHITWORTH'S could they be?" Rev. Paul will deliver his first sermon here Sunday entitled, "How to Teach Your Mice Manners." All are invited to atten[illegible]

BEVERLY NEWTON'S latest book entitled "Wishescence," has been on the market at long last. It is imagined that all copies will be gone before the day is through. From a New York review last month . . . "Miss Newton's recent book is by far outstanding over her other ones. CYNTHIA GILL, farmer's daughter in Wishescence, Indiana, is as capable on a tractor plowing as her neighbor JOSEPH PAIS is at home cooking. RICHARD NEWHALL creates quite a scene when h's newest mobile creation created from a truck, 2 tractors, and a discarded jalopy—which was his last dream car, gets out of control and proceeds down Gill's newly plowed corn fields and then on to——. We wouldn't want to spoil the fine story for you, so you can learn of Newhall's further adventures when you read "Wishescence." For the older folk they'll enjoy how the parents of these younger folk treat the fixes these teenagers get into." Questioning Miss Newton as to the background of her book we found that many of the experiences in her novel were true to life from her teen-years in West Peabody. Several of her characters bear names of her classmates. Cynthia Gill is now the head of the 4-H program in New England and can still man a tractor as well as ever. Pais is working as a mechanic on English made cars but keeps up his cooking skills taking Boy Scouts out on camping trips and teaching them the tricks of cooking. Out in Detroit today we would find Mr. Newhall sitting in his plush office behind a pine door labeled Vice-Pres. Ford Motors Corp. Get your copy of "Wishescence" today and learn of the country life in West Peabody as Miss Newton remembers it.

New York City, New York January 6,1968

Miss GERRY ANN BONFANTI, secretary to FRANK ROSSI television electrician visited the costuming department of P.E.P. T.V. station to see about a costume for the Masquerade Ball Saturday that is being given by Mr. Rossi. Rumors have it that Gerry was considering investing in a pair of stilts so that she might conceal her identity. CLAIRE COMEAU, an employee in the costuming department and a friend of Gerry's said that Gerry was borrowing one of her gowns, so there could be truth in the rumor of stilts. She won't have to get up on a chair to talk to any of the tall Texan oil millionaires that reportedly will be there. In particular RICHARD SIKORA of Dallas will be there. From the Dallas News last week came this article concerning Mr. Sikora: This morning before breakfast Mr. Sikora flew to Topeka, Kansas to select personally bird seed for his prize canaries, and slew of trained ants.

Marblehead, Mass. Auguest 17, 1959

Coast Guardsmen ROGER ALUKONIS, BILL BRIDGES and PETER GARZONE rescued would-be sailors CONNIE CASTRANOVA, STELLA EFTIM, CAROL KOWALSKI and JULIETTE LE BOEUF when their sailboat waiting for the wind was caught in the tide and taken out into the deep waters. The girls sent S.O.S. distress signals using a mirror as they had learned when they were Brownies. The Coast Guard really didn't mind rescuing the pretty misses.

In Memoriam

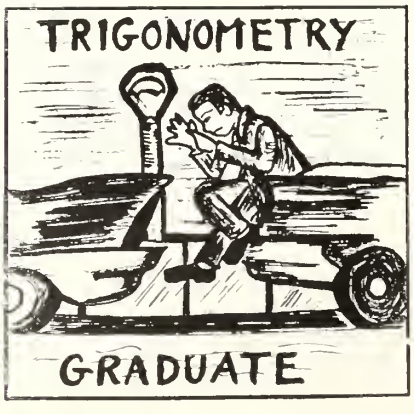
We, the editors of this special paper, feel that it is only fitting and proper that a portion of this publication be dedicated and devoted to the memory of our late Alma Mater, the beloved PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL.

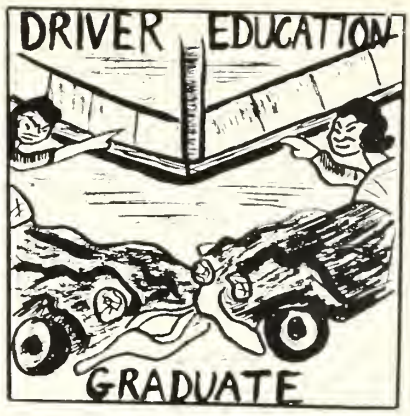
On the evening of March 12, 1977, the new high school having been completed the previous week, the city council of Peabody awarded the contract for the tearing down of the old school to a prominent local contracting firm. In the span of one mere month, the PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL which served as a house of education for not only us but for many classes before and after us was a dear memory.

It is in the everlasting memory of that PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL, the one we knew and loved, that we deservedly dedicate these few lines. There will always be a place in our hearts for the memory of our PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL and what it meant to us.

Los Angeles, California June 16, 1961

LYDIA PROKHOVICH, well known portrait artist has just been contracted by Walt Disney to paint colored portraits of fashion models SHELIA BURKE and MARILYN DONAHUE. Disney plans to use these heads in his forth coming full features cartoon, "Puss and Boots," as character faces. Should prove interesting to see just how Disney uses these pretty faces. Meanwhile you can see these same pictures next December when they will be on the cover of "Popular Mechanics," Lydia, Sheila and Marilyn will all make guest appearances on the Mickey Mouse Club this week, if any one is interested.





Peabody, Mass. September 8, 1962
(from Peabody Times)

From PAT'S Beauty Shop this week we learned . . . PAT VERCELLONE has installed intercoms in her hair dryers for clearer communications while her patrons are under the dryers . . . SUE WAHTERA R.N. at the J. B. Thomas Hospital caught the chicken pox from one of her charges and was thus unable to keep her appointment this week. However DONNA GESSON is back in town for a week and was thrilled to get the time. Donna is taking a short vacation after 72 continuous weeks on Broadway where she has been starring as Mme. Zooootie, fortune teller, in the smash hit "Under the Big Top." Her patient understudy JOYCE DAKOS will at long last have the opportunity to display her acting talents during Miss Gesson's absence . . . ANASTASIA SPILIOTIS has had her hair recut to show off a beautiful new pair of sea shell earrings sent to her from the South Sea Islands . . . CAROL WALSH started work Tuesday for Pat dusting finger nail polish bottles and feednig the shop's mascot cat, "Emperor Abbey Jay" . . . DONNA TOWNSEND was in to have her throat sprayed pink to match her new swim suit. All of the special female cheerleaders for Annapolis have received new rainbow colored suits for the big Navy-Army swim meet this Saturday . . . APHRODITE SELLIOS saleswoman for the School Chew Gum Co. demonstrating the elasticity of her company's bubble bum, blew too big a bubble yesterday, which broke over her face and hair and thus she was in today for a new hair cut . . . GERTRUDE PHILLIPS has at last a convertible of her own. She and ANDREA STONE were in Tuesday to have their pony tails trimmed. Andrea is now working at the communication desk of American Airlines.

Peabody, Mass. September 4, 1975

It was recently announced by RUTH LARRABEE that plans for a new 5 and 10 cent Store have been completed. "The store," said Miss Larrabee, president of the 5 and 10 cent chain, "will be located on the present site of Peabody High School. Hopeful speculators believe the new P.H.S. will be completed within the next two years."

The JOSEPH SILVA and RONALD SELVO Construction Company have been contracted to tear down P.H.S. and also to build the new store there.

Manager of the present store RICHARD PELLETIER will continue as manager when the new store is opened.

THE FOLLOWING ADVERTISEMENTS ARE PRINTED IN APPRECIATION OF DONATIONS RECEIVED FROM THOSE MEMBERS OF OUR CLASS OF '57 AT P. H. S. WHO ARE NOW IN BUSINESS AND WERE SO KIND AS TO ADVERTISE IN OUR PUBLICATION. WITHOUT THEIR HELP THIS NEWSPAPER COULD NOT HAVE BEEN PRINTED. THANKS ONE AND ALL.
